AFIC lauds Australia Post for its Frontline Heroes stamp series

Media Statement

25 February 2021

"Last week, Australia Post released its series of "Frontline Heroes" stamps. The choice of images that includes Australians of different colours and faiths is a most welcome cultural expression that asserts and celebrates our diversity before the entire nation." Said Dr Rateb Jneid, president, AFIC.

Muslims Australia, the Australian Federation of Islamic Councils (AFIC) lauds Australia post for giving a true reflection of our nation's social and religious fabric. The depiction of a Muslim-scarf-wearing front-line hero is a most commendable expression of Australian unity as we all pull together to tackle our challenges.
